AUSTRIA SITTING PRETTY

The contract for Tromsø signed, sealed and delivered.

After two days play, Austria is leading the way in the European Open Mixed Teams, with 154.28. They are followed by Ned/Aut on 148.51 and these two teams have established a significant lead over the rest of the field. Third place is occupied by Schaltz, 132.33, fourth is Gotard, 130.94, fifth Connector Poland, 130.79 and sixth Troll, 127.85.

At the end of the 13th round, the top two teams will play off for the title, while those lying third and fourth will meet in the bronze medal match.

Today's Schedule Mixed Teams (Swiss, Day 3/3)

10:00 - 11:30

11:45 - 13:15

14:15 - 15:45

16:00 - 17:30

17:45 - 19:15

Same schedule for the Open MP Pairs

Important Information

MIXED TEAMS 3rd day

We would like to remind all teams that this is a 3-day event over 15 rounds for all teams. In accordance with §14 of the Supplementary Conditions of Contest any team leaving the competition prematurely must expect disciplinary sanctions, since it will disrupt the event and inconvenience other participants. This means also that you may not leave the competition after round 13, irrespective of your ranking at that time. We also remind you that European Masterpoints are awarded to the top 13 teams.

Review Process

Please be reminded of the new appeals process where the classical appeal has been replaced by a review process. For further information, please refer to http://www.eurobridge.org/Repository/competitions/13
OOstende/Microsite/Information.htm#Conditions

Mixed Positions

Men and women can sit North or South, and East or West. However, once they have chosen their preferred position, they must retain that seat for the duration of the session.

Side Events

Please note that all side events are open which means that pairs and teams can be composed of players of any age or gender

Winners of the side events are asked to stay at their playing area for a few minutes after the results are known in order to be photographed and to collect their certificates.

Bits and Pieces

Partnership Desk

There is no formal partnership desk, but there is a board in the tent next to the registration where one can search for partners/team-mates.

Internet access

There is free wifi in the whole building, including the tent and its immediate vicinity. The network name is ebl-bridge-I or ebl-bridge-2. No password is necessary..

Payment at the registration desk

We accept cash or Credit Cards with a chip.

Food and beverages

There is a stand selling sandwiches, soups and beverages in the tent, open at least until the start of the final playing session each day. A more substantial but quickly served lunch will be available at special attractive prices at the Aqua del Mar and Ostende Queen restaurants. The latter is also providing a specially priced dinner menu for our participants.

GRATIS CARDS

Those with very tight economy can apply for a number of used EBL cards free of charge at the bookstall on the Mezzanine level.

New and old EBL cards are also sold cheaply.

New Mobile Device Policy

Please take note that we are using a new policy for mobile phones at these championships. It is allowed to bring your mobile phones to the table provided they are completely switched off at all times. When going to the rest rooms however, they must be left at the table or with the person escorting you to the restrooms. Any breach of these rules (such as a phone ringing or vibrating) will be penalized in accordance with the General Conditions of Contest (available at http://www.eurobridge.org/Repository/competitions/130Ostende/Microsite/EBLGeneralCoC2013.pdf).

Such penalties are automatic and compulsory for the first offense.

Une donne pour les élèves

En contemplant les résultats de ses homologues à la fin du premier match de l'épreuve mixte par équipes, Alain Lévy bougonnait un peu. « Je ne comprends pas pourquoi il y en a tant qui ont chuté 4 sur la donne 2. Notre adversaire suisse a tablé, c'est une donne pour les élèves! »

Voici l'objet de son irritation :

Match N°I – donne n°2. Est donneur, Nord-Sud vulnérables

Les enchères :

Sud	Ouest	Nord	Est
Anne-Fréd	lérique	Alain Lévy
D0000	I 🏚	D0000	passe 2♠

passe	4♠	fin

Alain entama de la ♡Dame. Son adversaire prit de l'As, coupa un Cœur et continua par le ♠As et un Pique pour le Roi du mort. Les atouts s'étant révélés 2-2, il poursuivit d'un petit Carreau pour sa Dame. Alain Lévy fit la levée du Roi et n'avait plus de bon retour. Jouer Trèfle ou coupe et défausse offre une levée de Trèfle au déclarant. Et rejouer Carreau, qui semble le moindre mal, ne sert à différer l'issue fatale que de quelques instants : le 8 du mort fait la levée et le déclarant continue par As de Carreau et Carreau. Cette fois, la mise en main est imparable.

« Ah oui, tu as raison » acquiescent les auditeurs d'Alain Lévy. Survient alors Franck Multon : « Je sais que c'est le matin, je ne suis peut-être pas bien réveillé, mais j'ai choisi une ligne de jeu qui me semblait aussi bonne. Sur la même entame, j'ai coupé mon Cœur et j'ai fait tout de suite l'impasse à Carreau. Si l'impasse réussit, je peux tirer le ♦ As et sortir à Carreau. Et si c'est Nord qui prend la main, il doit me jouer les atouts ou m'offrir une levée à Trèfle. De plus, même si Ouest prend la ODame du Roi et en rejoue, j'ai peut-être une bonne à passer. Auquel cas, avec deux Carreaux en Ouest, je peux terminer par un jeu de sécurité à 100%, qui consiste à jouer atout pour le Roi et atout pour le Valet. » On perçoit alors un flottement chez les auditeurs, qui n'arrivent pas bien à départager les deux orateurs. Sam Lev, le champion américain d'origine polonaise, se mêle alors de la conversation. « Hum, je ne savais pas trop comment faire. J'ai commencé par encaisser le ♠As et le ♠Roi. J'ai bien pensé alors à jouer Carreau pour la Dame, mais il existe aussi quelques mauvais cas, par exemple le Roi second en Nord et Valet-9 troisièmes en Sud. Je n'étais pas pressé de jouer les Carreaux, en fait, et j'ai donc attaqué les Trèfles en partant du 10 du mort. Sud a couvert du Valet (peut-être n'aurait-elle pas dû, c'est vrai) et mon Roi a été pris de l'As. Le joueur en Nord a eu peur que je puisse développer deux levées de Trèfle avant que les Carreaux de la défense ne soit affranchis et il a rejoué Carreau sous son Roi. Finalement, peut-être une autre ligne était théoriquement meilleure, mais en pratique j'ai eu raison...»

Tout le monde était indécis mais il était temps de reprendre pour le deuxième match et le débat ne fut pas résolu. Et vous, qu'en pensez-vous ?

Somerset Maugham - you can just sit in your chair and even then have the feeling of being on a lovely journey.

All time favourite movie?

Les Intouchables.

What kind of music do you like to listen to? |azz.

What do you see as your best ever result? Still living....

Do you have a favourite hand? Yes

Who is your favourite bridge player?

My bridge partner: Marco ter Laare.

Is there a bridge book that had a profound influence on you?

Yes, my first learning book ever by the hand of Berry Westra (my former schoolmate) who should have introduced me earlier (if I could make a wish).

What is the best bridge country in the world? I don't believe in countries, I believe in specific persons.

What are bridge players particularly good at (except for bridge)?

Bickering.

What is it you dislike in a person?

To behave nicely on the outside/to someone's face and not mean anything they're saying - I'd rather have them shout at me (That would be more honest and then we can talk).

Do you have any superstitions concerning bridge?

Yes!

Who or what would you like to be if you weren't yourself?

Someone who makes a difference in important world matters.

Which three people would you invite to dinner? Any three who are worthwhile.

Is there something you'd love to learn?

Everything and anything which is sound.

What is the stupidest rule in bridge?

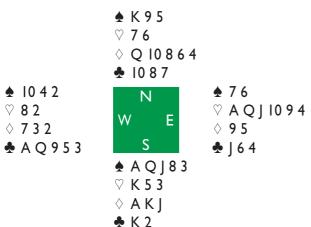

Any rule which doesn't achieve justice! (And there are many situations in which that is the case unfortunately).

Mixed Pairs F10

By Jos Jacobs, Barry Rigal and Brent Manley

When the final session of the Mixed Pairs started, Rosen Gunev and Dessy Popova were enjoying a comfortable-enough lead of more than two tops over quite a number of pairs who were all very close to one another in the table at that point. If anyone was expecting an easy run to the gold for the Bulgarians, they would have had to change their opinion on the very first board of the final session of 12 deals.

Board I. Dealer North. None Vul.

West	North	East	South
Popova	D'Ovidio	Gunev	Cronier
	Pass	2◊	Dbl
2♡	Pass	Pass	2♠
Pass	3♠	Pass	3NT
All Pass

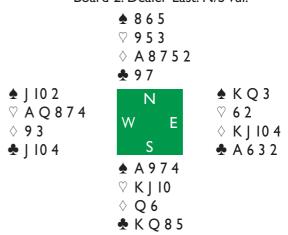

3NT by South was not the best contract here, since it can be defeated (or held to nine tricks, for that matter) on a heart lead to the ace and a club shift. In theory, therefore, the leaders were in for yet another good score when their distinguished opponents decided to stay in 3NT rather than move on to 4♠. Popova duly led a heart rather than a club. But when Gunev quite logically inserted the ten, declarer could win his king and cash ten more top tricks in the pointed suits for a score of +460 and 76%. Making 4♠ would have been worth only 36% for North-South and making nine tricks in 3NT would have netted 16%.

Had Gunev won the $\heartsuit A$ and returned a club, declarer should duck this to block the suit. This tends to be a play that is far more often found in the post mortem than at the table. If he does not, he will record the only minus score in North-South on the deal... And just for the record, all the pairs playing no-trump made II tricks; some defences are just too hard to find at the table.

The other deal at this table did not do the Bulgarians any good either:

Board 2. Dealer East. N/S Vul.

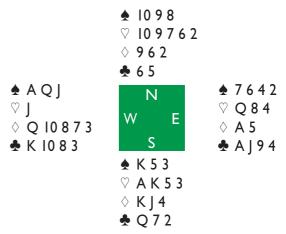

West	North	East	South
Popova	D'Ovidio	Gunev	Cronier
		I ♦	Dbl
I♡	Pass	INT	All Pass

INT was a fair contract but on the actual layout, 2° would have brought in eight tricks, for an average matchpoint score. When Gunev made just seven tricks on a spade lead by not going after the hearts but rather playing to establish diamond tricks, he had collected another poor score of 30% only.

The next round saw the Bulgarians facing an Italian pair with a world champion in it:

Board 3. Dealer South. E/W Vul.

West	North	East	South
Popova	Riolo	Gunev	Fantoni
			INT
Pass	2◊	Pass	2♡
All Pass

Popova led the ♥], won by Fantoni in hand. His next move was to cash the other top heart. When the queen did not appear, he was lucky to escape for down only two, when the defence presented him with a spade trick later on. Still, +200 was worth 82% to the Bulgarians, as in fact +300 would have been.

Bompis-Willard defended 3% down two, but when Welland-Auken had the North-South cards Nowosadzki doubled the no-trump opening to show a two-suiter and when Auken passed (expecting it to be removed) Dufrat passed it out! Welland escaped for down 500 but that was still a catastrophe for North-South.

Popova	Riolo	Gunev	Fantoni
♣	Pass	2♣	Pass
2♦	Pass	3♦	Pass
3NT	All Pass

This was the normal contract; but when Riolo found a spade lead, declarer could not come to more than nine tricks for another poor score: only 28%. The same happened when Welland defended 3NT by East on the lead of \heartsuit J, ducked, followed by a heart to Auken's queen for a spade shift. So far so good; Willard introduced a variant into the proceedings by winning the lead of the $\heartsuit J$ and immediately playing four rounds of clubs. With the hearts blocked the defenders could only take three tricks. One final variant: when Levitina was declaring 3NT as East on a blind auction (I \clubsuit -INT-3NT) Popa led a LOW heart against 3NT. Trapani won and immediately shifted to spades, holding declarer to nine tricks by force with exactly half a top rising on the overtrick. Ben trovato!

Next, the Bulgarians had to face another Italian pair, this time with no world champions in it.

Board 5. Dealer North. N/S Vul.

Though Gunev duly led a club from his doubleton, he never got his ruff. Declarer inserted dummy's queen but the king won and Popova returned the ♣10 to dummy's ace. The ♥K was won by Gunev's ace and a spade came back, Popova winning her king when declarer finessed. From here, the contract can actually be defeated: club ruff, diamond back and another club ruff but when Popova tried to cash two top diamonds instead, she had presented

All Pass

 $\downarrow \Diamond$

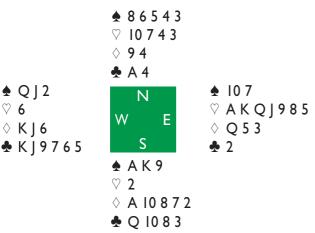

Dessy Popova, Bulgaria

declarer with an overtrick for an average score rather than an almost clear top. (The defenders' problem was that South's carding and the early play was more consistent with South holding J863 than 63 doubleton. Auken-Welland defended in almost precisely this way when declarer duplicated this line.)

Willard found another way to make +140 by ducking the club lead in dummy at trick one. Lev put in the nine and Willard won her jack and played a diamond to scissor the defenders' communications. Lev won and underled in spades, and this meant declarer had two spades five hearts and two clubs but just 25 MP.

The next board was a real disaster for the Bulgarians:

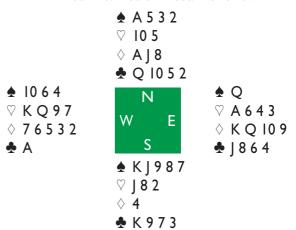

West	North	East	South
Trapani	Popova	Рора	Gunev
		4♡	DЫ
Pass	4♠	Pass	Pass
DЫ	All Pass

Sylvie Willard, France

After a heart lead and club shift, Popova went down four, which brought the leaders no matchpoints at all. Auken-Welland (against Tignel-Faivre) and Lev (against Willard-Bompis) reached the same spot, the former after a 1♥ opening by East, the latter after a 4♥ pre-empt. It is easier to have sympathy with a North-South pair forced into the immediate decision to sacrifice than one with two bites at the cherry. In 4♠x, Lev got a heart lead and club shift. He drew one round of trumps before going after diamonds. The defenders cashed the club king and took a ruff with ♠10 but all they could now get was one further trump trick for +300 - that was worth 23/50 MP.Auken did not draw a round of trumps before embarking on the diamonds; she went for 500 and scored 16 MP.

Board 8. Dealer West. None Vul.

West	North	East	South
Ророча	Bompis	Gunev	Willard
Pass	Pass	I ♦	l 🏚
Dbl	2NT	DЫ	Pass
3♡	3♠	Pass	Pass
4♡	DЫ	All Pass

The popular contract here was a heart partscore. Making nine tricks would bring you already 66% and the tenth trick was worth another 16%.

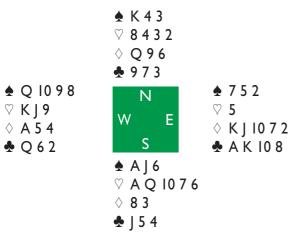

Playing in $4\heartsuit$ doubled was a different story, of course. On the \triangle A lead and a club shift, you might make it doubledummy by playing a diamond up, return to your hand in trumps and lead another diamond. The possible ruff does not hurt you as it would take the third trump out of the South hand. However, if you have every reason to think that trumps are 4-1, in view of the double, then you would rather try to restrict your losses. This apparently is what Popova did as she managed to go one off by ruffing a spade in dummy and then leading the $\lozenge Q$ from dummy. Later, she played a diamond from hand to the king and a ruff by South.

One off doubled, -100, was still good enoughfor an average score. By contrast, Verbeek as South defended 4%x by East and did lead her singleton for +100 while Auken-Welland did not double 5% (they had bid to $4\spadesuit$ by North which was probably going to make) and collected +100 the hard way.

For the last four deals of the session, we move over to the table where Sylvie Willard and Marc Bompis were trying to catch up with the leaders.

Board 9. Dealer North. E/W Vul.

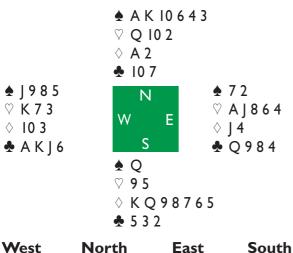

West	North	East	South
Willard	Norling	Bompis	Norling
	Pass	I ♦	ΙŸ
Dbl	Pass	2♣	Pass
3NT	All Pass

On a heart lead to the ace and a heart back to declarer's jack, Sylvie Willard quickly made II tricks with the help of a diamond finesse. This was worth 80%. I watched Gromov as West play 3NT on a similar auction (North had shown a weak heart raise). He won the heart lead - 4, 5, 10, jack and crossed to dummy with a club to pass the \lozenge to North. Now maybe North should have shifted to spades; when he played a second heart it was hard for South to work out that a spade shift was required, so Gromov was back to +630 and a just a little below average. Popova-Gunev defended against 3NT by Kowalski, sitting West, after East opened $I\Diamond$ and Gunev overcalled $I\heartsuit$. Popova led a low heart to Gunev's ace, and he astutely cashed the A and continued with the ♠ to the queen and king. Popova exited with a spade, and when Kowalski misguessed diamonds, he recorded only plus 600, worth 76% to the winners.

On the next board, the opponents tried 3NT:

Board 10. Dealer East. All Vul.

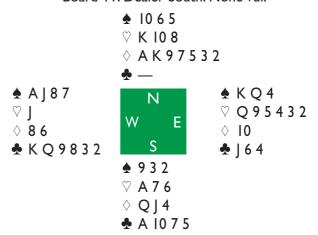

Willard	Norling	Bompis	Norling
		Pass	3♦
Pass	3NT	All Pass

A heart lead to the king, the $\clubsuit K$ and a heart back soon gave the defenders nine tricks and 92%. Welland-Auken had a huge chance for a good score; their opponents bid to $4 \diamondsuit (3 \diamondsuit - 3 \spadesuit - 4 \diamondsuit)$ and Welland led $\clubsuit K$ then shifted to a trump - which could certainly have been the right defence on a different day, but not today. -130 meant 5 MP rather than the 31 MP for +100.

When Popova-Gunev played the board, Gunev opened 3♦ after East passed, and soon found himself one level higher in diamonds when Popova bid 3♠. Kowalski made no mistake, cashing the top clubs before switching to the ♥K and another heart. Plus 100 was worth 62% for East-West. Plus 110 would have been worth the same for North-South.

On the first board of the final round, the French were for one brief moment on their way to the title when Willard proposed a no-trump contract. Even 2NT with overtricks would have been worth 76% but 3NT would have brought the French at least 86%, enough for the title in view of the eventual margin between the first two pairs. However:

Board II. Dealer South. None Vul.

West	North	East	South
Jaszczak	Bompis	Sarniak	Willard
			Pass
2♣	2♦	2♡	2NT
Pass	3◊	All Pass

This was worth only 56% for the French. Cronier-D'Ovidio had no problems here against the Helnesses. After $(1\clubsuit)-3\diamondsuit-(3\heartsuit)-3NT$ the defenders led clubs and D'Ovidio tabled her hand for +430.

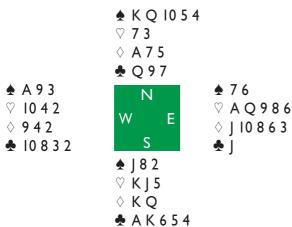

On this deal, Popova and Gunev did not land in the best spot, but they did record a useful plus.

West	North	East	South
B. Odlund	Ророча	M. Odlund	Gunev
			I♦
2♣	2◊	2♡	3♦
Pass	Pass	4♣	Pass

Declarer has nine tricks in 3NT on a spade lead, 10 tricks on a non-spade lead. With seven-card support for partner's opening. Popova was indeed restrained. Gunev always had 10 tricks, and plus 130 was worth 56%

The last board was a routine game; but which?

Board 12. Dealer West. N/S Vul.

West	North	East	South
Jaszczak	Bompis	Sarniak	Willard
Pass	I♠	2♠	DЫ
Pass	Pass	3♦	3♡
Pass	3NT	All Pass

The two-suited overcall made the layout of the hand clear to declarer who thus had no trouble in making 11 tricks on a diamond lead. +660 was worth 78%

Not everybody reached no-trump though. When Cronier-D'Ovidio were North and South D'Ovidio as South heard Cronier open I♠ and the next hand overcall 2♥. She bid 3♣ and when Cronier temporized with 3♥, she felt obliged to bid 3♠; after all, why shouldn't partner have had the ♠A West held? She played 4♠ for 650 and an average.

Gunev and Popova won the event on the final deal.

West	North	East	South
B. Odlund	Ророча	M. Odlund	Gunev
Pass	I♠	3♡*	3NT
All Pass

Gunev's decision to bid 3NT instead of raising spades did the trick. On the bidding, he was never going to take fewer than 11 tricks, losing only to the major-suit aces. Plus 660 would have scored enough matchpoints for them to win by a small margin. As it was, the margin grew to the still-tiny. 28% on the actual defense.

West led a low heart, on which East played the queen. Gunev won the $\heartsuit K$ and played the $\clubsuit J$. West won and continued with the $\heartsuit I0$. Obviously she was envisioning – or at least hoping for – an entry in her partner's hand, East played low on the heart to maintain communication. Gunev took the $\heartsuit J$ and quickly claimed I2 tricks for plus 690 and 98%.

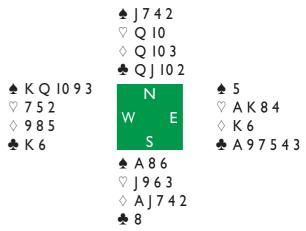

When North-West Meets South-East

by Jan van Cleeff

CoCa JoJa may sound a little exotic, but it is just an abbreviation of the names of a bunch of talented young players from a rainy, windy and small country of North-Western Europe: the Netherlands. In the first round CoCa JoLa met the Adams Family, four extremely good looking players from a small, hot and dry country from the South-Eastern part of Europe: Bulgaria.

Board 4 (RI, Mixed Teams) proved that pretty faces alone are not always sufficient to score decent results.

 $I \heartsuit$ may be four cards third in hand

For a moment Cheryl van der Toorn as West considered responding with $I \triangleq but$ decided to raise her partner, Chris Westerbeek. Against 2° South led her stiff club to the I0 and ace. Declarer tabled a spade, ducked by South, to dummy's king. Next came the $\clubsuit K$, ruffed by South, who tried to cash her $\clubsuit A$. Little did she know about declarer's hand. Westerbeek ruffed and advanced a third club on which South pitched a spade. After ruffing a club in dummy declarer tried the $\spadesuit Q$ ($\lozenge 6$), ruffed by South, who desperately underled her $\lozenge A$. When the bare $\lozenge K$ won the trick, Chris Westerbeek ended up with nine tricks.

At the other table, East-West tried to score nine tricks as well, though the contract was somewhat different.

Welcome to EC Tromsø 2015

Open European Championships June 27th - July 11th International Youth Festival July 12th - July 18th European Youth Team Championships July 19th - July 25th

At a latitude of nearly 70 degrees north, four days' sailing from Bergen and barely a two-hour flight from Oslo, Murmansk or Longyearbyen, at the same latitude as Alaska and Siberia, between the island landscape, fiords and mountain peaks, you find Tromsø – Gateway to the Arctic and capital of Northern Norway.

www.eurobridge.org www.bridge.no www.EC2015.bridge.no

Press Conference

At yesterday's Press Conference EBL President Yves Aubry announced that Tromsø, the 'Paris of the North' would be the venue for the 2015 European Open Championships and the Youth Championships.

The relevant dates are 26 June 2015 to 11 July 2015 and 18 July to 25 July 2015.

Jan Aasen, the President of the Norwegian Bridge Federation, and Jonas Stein, Commissioner for business, culture and sports for the City of Tromsø, narrated a presentation about the city and then joined the EBL President in answering a number of questions relating to the Championships.

Flying to Tromsø is not a problem, there are 25 inexpensive flights a day from Oslo (!) and you can get a direct flight from London Gatwick. These are by no means the only routes.

You might drive from Oslo, but there is no motorway and it could easily take you three days (although you would get to see some fantastic scenery).

The airport in Tromsø is just 10 minutes away from the city centre. There is a wide range of hotels, which are not expensive (and all have good reviews on the Internet). It is also possible to rent self-catering apartments.

In Northern Norway, the sun never sets during the summer months. You can go on a midnight sun cruise, join a safari or play golf in the middle of the night.

Food and drink is perhaps a little more expensive than usual, but the EBL will be announcing reduced entry fees for the Championships.

DUPLIMATE DISCOUNTS

The new dealing machines used at this event are sold with same warranties as new units for € 2,350 as long as stock lasts. Place your order at the bookstall on the Mezzanine level.

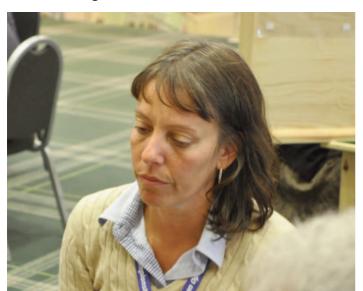

Italian Teams On A Mission

by Mark Horton

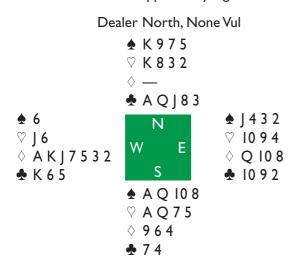

An Italian team has never secured a medal in the European Open Mixed Teams Championship, so the seven teams engaged in the Championships in Ostend were hoping to break the mould when play started on Wednesday.

There was no seeding, so the draw for Round I produced some significant match-ups. Breno had to take on a powerful Scandinavian team, Schaltz, and there were several exciting deals.

Nadia Bekkouche

Both teams missed an opportunity right at the start:

South led the six of spades and North put in the jack, declarer winning with the queen and playing the three of clubs for the four, jack and ten. The ace of diamonds was followed by a diamond to the jack and declarer cashed the ace, South discarding the nine of clubs, and then played a spade to the ten. North won and switched to the four of hearts, declarer winning and claiming ten tricks, +430.

The different evaluation meant declarer would have to make a few winning guesses, although North was bound to offer some assistance right from the start.

The five of clubs went to the two, queen and ace and declarer cashed the ace of diamonds and played a diamond to the ten. A heart to the jack lost to North's king and when North returned the queen of diamonds declarer was able to claim, +1440 and 13 IMPs to Schaltz, reclaiming the lead, 24-13.

In the Open Room North-South reached 4% but on a club lead declarer played low from dummy and lost the first five tricks, two down, -200.

North's first two doubles were for takeout while the third one was more optional in nature.

North led the five of spades and South took the ace and does best to return a spade. Say declarer wins in dummy, comes to hand with a diamond and plays a club. North must go up with the ace and return a low heart, South winning with the king and returning her last spade. Not an easy defence to be sure.

However, South switched to the jack of diamonds and declarer won with the ace and played the two of clubs. North took the ace and returned the five of clubs, declarer winning with dummy's king, discarding a diamond from hand.

Now declarer should play a heart (or a diamond, ruff a diamond and then a heart) when he cannot be denied the ruffs he needs in dummy, but he played the jack of spades. When that held, he played the ten of hearts, covered by the jack, queen and ace. North exited with the queen of diamonds and declarer won with the king, ruffed a diamond and played a heart. South won and played the queen of spades leaving declarer with a losing heart, one down, -200 and a scary 9 IMPs for Breno, just behind at 24-22. Schaltz got seriously lucky on our last deal:

Quantin v. Jansma

During the first half of this match, the Turkish-Dutch team called Jansma had the better of two partscores to gain 10 IMPs in all. A larger impact on their score had the fact that Aydogdu was among the declarers to bring home 4\(\phi\) on the first board after a singleton club lead followed by less than perfect defence.

The closing four boards of the set were more interesting:

Board 27. Dealer South. None Vul.

In the Open Room, the French eventually landed in a decent contract they could not make when they competed against the opponents' making heart partscore. Down one, lansma +50.

When East led a natural enough heart and when West jumped in with $\lozenge A$ at trick 2 to return partner's suit rather than find the far from obvious shift to the $\bigstar K$, declarer had time to establish the diamonds in peace and quiet for nine tricks. Jansma another +400 and 10 more IMPs.

On the next board, the French North-South did not get to slam but they still recorded a sizeable swing.

When both North and South could only find doubles at their respective second turns to bid, 5♣X became the final contract. Down two, +300 to Jansma, but 9 IMPs back to Quantin.

On the next board, Jan Jansma earned his side a bushel of Imps by staying quiet (not normally his strong suit - a cynical editor might post as an aside).

After showing his extremely promising hand just once, Jan refrained from any further action. Right he was, as the three-level would already have been too high for East-West. What is more: North-South had missed a good vulnerable game or even a slam...Quantin +170.

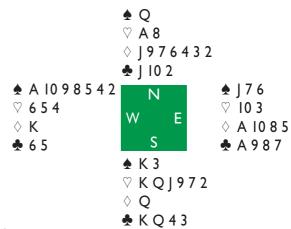

In the other room, West was less careful:

West	North	East	South
Rouanet La	Aydogdu	Quantin	Akin
	I ♦	I♠	DЫ
3♡	Pass	4♠	Pass
Pass	Dbl	All Pass

Once West bid 3%, she had committed her side to game, against which North had the last word. Down two, Jansma +500 and 9 IMPs back to them.

On the last board, the Turkish North-South had a costly misunderstanding about the nature of a fit-bid.

Board 30. Dealer East. None Vul.

The French could hardly be blamed for not reaching game and registered +170. However the board clearly looked to have some promise for them, since $4\frac{1}{2}$, a save against 4° , would probably be made, even after three rounds of hearts. North would score his $\frac{1}{2}$ Q and return a club, but declarer would win the ace in dummy, play a trump to his ten, cash the $\frac{1}{2}$ A and the $\frac{1}{2}$ K and then return to dummy's $\frac{1}{2}$ J to discard the club loser on the $\frac{1}{2}$ A.

In the other room, East-West did reach 4♠ and now, North offered a choice of sacrifice bids by bidding 5♦ which should imply some heart tolerance in an auction of this type (although a call of four no-trump if for the minors, followed by a correction of 5♠ to 5♦ might also get the job done). The message apparently did not reach South so the outcome was down four rather than down one, a 14-Imp swing to Quantin rather than only 7 IMPs. The final result thus became 16.18 – 3.82 to Jansma.

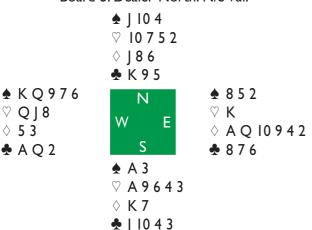

Mixed Teams R4

Jansma v. Czech Republic

This was the match at table I in Round 4. The Czechs had just given Helgeness a beating to stay top of the table, whereas Jansma had just beaten Quantin about 16-4 to move into second position.

The match was effectively decided on two boards. This was the first:

Board 5. Dealer North. N/S Vul.

Open Room

West	North	East	South
Volhejn	Akin	Jankova	Aydogdu
	Pass	2NT*	3♡
Pass	4♡	Pass	Pass
DЫ	All Pass
2NT 5-12, 6+ diamonds

When South made a light vulnerable overcall over the pre-empt, and when North found an even lighter raise, Volhejn concluded the auction with a well-timed double. Down two, 500 to the Czechs.

Jakub Slemr

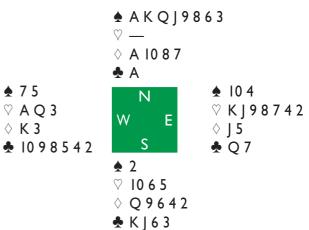

There was no such aggression in the other room:

West	North	East	South
Jansma J.	Slemr	Jansma A.	Hoderova
	Pass	3◊	All Pass

On the 4J lead, this contract went two down, when declarer misguessed the trumps. This was another +100 and 12 IMPs to the Czechs.

The Czechs did distinctly better than their opponents on board 8 too:

Board 8. Dealer West. None Vul.

Open Room

West	North	East	South
Volhejn	Akin	Jankova	Aydogdu
Pass	2♣	DЫ	Pass
3♡	4♠	All Pass

From your own hand, you would be rather disappointed as North to go down in $4\frac{1}{2}$.

So it proved. Jansma + 480.

In the other room, the Czechs were more enterprising, and rightly so:

Closed Room

West	North	East	South
Jansma J.	Slemr	Jansma A.	Hoderova
Pass	2♠	Pass	3♣
Pass	3♠	Pass	4♠
Pass	6♠	All Pass

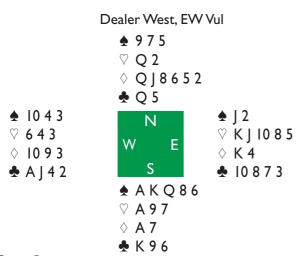

Slemr judged that his second suit might produce some extra tricks, either by ruffing or by finding some fitting cards opposite. He guessed extremely well, or, if you prefer, bought the perfect dummy, and earned his side +1430 and 13 lmps.

The final score in the match thus became 15.97 - 4.03 in favour of the Czech Republic, who thus easily managed to stay on top of the rankings.

As is so often the case, the third-in-hand East adopted diversionary tactics. When South doubled North had to choose between $2\lozenge$ and $3\lozenge$ (I cannot say if North was in a position to have opened with a weak $2\lozenge$). When she opted for the more aggressive initial action and then raised spades South was constrained to push on to the hopeless slam.

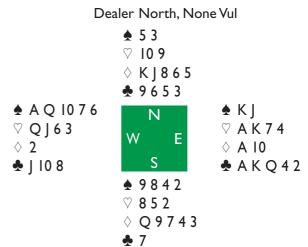

West led the three of hearts, covered by the queen, king and ace and declarer cashed the ace of spades and then played a club. West went in with the ace and played a heart and East won and played back a club to dummy's queen. Championship Diary

It may surprise you to learn that things do not always go according to plan in the Bulletin office. Whenever the blame for a disaster is laid at someone's door they always seek to escape liability by exclaiming 'It's all Mario's Fault'.

Despite our best efforts, from time to time the odd mistake creeps into the Bulletin, despite the presence of the most sophisticated spell checkers yet devised. My own spelling is so atrocious that I am always delighted when I type a long word that is not immediately underlined in red.

In golf, the 'fairway' is what you cross to reach your ball.

Famous actors frequently avail themselves of the services of a stunt double. Ron Tacchi & Jan van Cleeff are entering into negotiations.

Leonard Helman 1926 - 2013

Some of you may be aware that the Rabbi Leonard Helman passed away at the beginning of June.

The Rabbi was a staunch supporter of Junior Bridge and created endowment funds in many countries, including Australia, Belarus, Bulgaria, Ireland, Israel, Japan, New Zealand and Poland.

A few years ago the Rabbi mentioned in one of our almost daily conversations that he would like me to come to his funeral. 'Sure, Rabbi' I replied. 'Can you give me the date?' I'm sure you can all hear his ensuing laughter.

I have just finished writing a book (with Eric Kokish) recounting our adventures at the bridge table, and it tells the story of a man who became hooked on bridge at an early age.

I have lost a dear friend, but his memory will live on in many ways, not least when The Rabbi's Rules is published in the fall.

The Rabbi believed in spiritual immortality. He instructed his family to put a deck of cards in his coffin in case - who knows?

Thanks to Ann Chapelle and Leen Daenen, the staffers responsible for printing the Daily Bulletin each night!

FESTIVAL OVER 60 2013

For players born on or before. 31/12/1953

FIGB Trophies Lady and Mister Over 60 2013 6th - 14th July 2013

Riccione - Palazzo dei Congressi (via Virgilio 17)

Participation to Festival Over 60 is open to FIGB's owners of Competitive License for the year 2013 and, with no restrictions of numbers, players of NBO's members of WBF and EBL, in good standing with their Federations.

The event is played under the sponsorship of WBF and EBL and awards WBF and EBL Master Points.

There will be the following Championships:

Mixed Teams, Mixed Pairs, Individual, Open Pairs, Ladies Pairs, Open Teams.

It will be possible to register right before the start of each competition, provided there is sufficient room to accommodate all the players. Otherwise, preference will be given to the first ones.

It is thus desirable, even to allow a better organization, to comunicate your will to participate mailing gare@federbridge.it specifying the competitions where you would like to partecipate, and listing the components of your pair or team.

Format

Mixed Teams

The Teams will play six rounds of Swiss, 8 boards per round. At the end, they will be divided in groups and play two further rounds, Danish movement, 8 boards per round.

Mixed Pairs

The pairs will be seeded, and spread in Sections accordingly. The Qualification stage consists of 4 rounds of 10 boards each, Mitchell movement. At the end, the top 10 Pairs qualify to Final A, where they will play a Howell of 18 boards. The remaining Pairs will be divided in groups according to the ranking (details to be published on site, depending by the number of entries) and will play two rounds of 10 boards each, Mitchell Movement. For Final A and Consolation the carry-over will be equal to the final average (percentage) of the qualification stage.

Individual

The players will be seeded, and spread in sections accordingly. The event consists of three stanzas of 18 boards each.

Open and Ladies Pairs

In both Championships, the pairs will be seeded, and spread in Sections accordingly. The Qualification stage consists of 4 rounds of 10 boards each, Mitchell movement. At the end, the top 16 Pairs qualify to Final A, where they will play a Stanza Howell of 30 boards, three stanzas of 10 boards each. The remaining Pairs will be divided in groups according to the ranking (details to be published on site, depending by the number of entries) and will play two rounds of 10 boards each, Mitchell Movement.

For Final A and Consolation the carry-over will be equal to the final average (percentage) of the qualification stage. In Final A, the weight of the carry-Over will be equal to 5/12.

Open Teams

The Teams will play six rounds of Swiss, 8 boards per round. At the end, they will be divided in groups and play one further rounds, Danish movement, 8 boards...
